

FRIEND OF SHADE TREES WINS

WIRE STRINGERS FINED, THOUGH THEY HAD A COURT ORDER.

Henry Clay Weeks Had Avoided Acceptance of That Order and of $50 Damages Since 1904—Attempt to Trick Him Fails—Fines Judge Place Linemen.

Henry Clay Weeks, who is known throughout Queens and Nassau counties as the champion of shade trees, won a victory in his crusade yesterday, when Magistrate Fitch in the Flushing police court fined Foreman Frank Sunderlin and Linemen Charles Olsen and Frank Murphy of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company $10 each for disorderly conduct in attempting to string telephone wires in front of Mr. Weeks' handsome country place, Vista Lawn, at Bay Side.

Mr. Weeks' victory was more decisive because of the fact that in December, 1904, before Justice Jaycox, the company by condemnation proceedings obtained an easement across Mr. Weeks' property giving it the right to erect and maintain nine poles in front of Vista Lawn and to string wires and cables thereon. The court also awarded Mr. Weeks $50 damages in the matter, but as Mr. Weeks and also his wife, who died three months ago, had avoided acceptance of both the order of the court and the payment of the $50 the order was non-effective.

It developed at the hearing yesterday that Lawyer A. C. Cameron, who represented the telephone company, had made an adroit move to pay the $50 award in the condemnation proceedings and also serve him with a copy of the court order.

"Were you not handed an envelope by me when you came into this court this morning and did not that envelope contain a certified copy of the findings in the condemnation proceedings instituted by the telephone company to obtain an easement across your land?" inquired Lawyer Cameron of Mr. Weeks.

"It did not suit my convenience to open the envelope," replied Mr. Weeks, "and in consequence I am not aware of its contents."

Magistrate Fitch said they couldn't stand on technicalities and that if Mr. Weeks had such an envelope to hand it over to the court. As the Magistrate opened the envelope Mr. Cameron called his attention to the fact that it contained $50, the amount awarded Mr. Weeks by the court and that the telephone company had tried in vain to pay over. As a result of this Mr. Weeks' counsel, Stephen Voria, shouted:

"We don't want it!"

"Well, I don't want it lying around here," returned Magistrate Fitch, and Mr. Voria finally consented to take charge of the $50 note as trustee for the court, but for no other purpose.

In his decision Magistrate Fitch ruled that the telephone company had not made a legal tender of the $50, and until this money was paid the order of the court was not effective and could not be held as binding upon Mr. Weeks. He therefore held that the telephone men were trespassers notwithstanding they had a permit from the city authorities to string the wires.

"But it's all the fault of these people in not receiving this money," interposed Mr. Cameron with some heat. "Mr. Weeks has been troubling us for the past five years."

"It's twelve years," broke in Mr. Weeks with spirit.

"I accept the amendment," replied Mr. Cameron.

"You men were guilty of trespassing, and I will fine them $10 each," broke in Magistrate Fitch.

Mr. Voria then returned the $50 bill to the custody of the court, who in turn handed it over to Mr. Cameron, and he paid the fines of the three men present in the court room. It is now proposed to pay the $50 into court before further steps are taken to string wires across Mr. Weeks' estate. Owners of country houses throughout Queens and Nassau counties will watch the fight with interest.

In addition to protecting shade trees, Mr. Weeks, who is wealthy, is known as one of the champion mosquito fighters of the North Shore. When automobiles first came into use in that section of Queens county he was among the first to organize a crusade against speed maniacs, and he has fought all the expensive litigation which his various actions have brought.

GERMAN POLIKLINIK

Celebrates the 25 Years in Which It Has Treated 1,000,000 Patients Free.

The German Poliklinik celebrated the silver anniversary of its founding with a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria last night. The four surviving doctors of the original fifteen who established the institution (twenty-five years ago) were the guests of honor. These were Dr. Samuel Kohn, Dr. H. J. Boldt, Dr. A. H. von Ramdohr and Dr. Ludwig Weiss. Frau Simon Steinger, on behalf of the women interested in the Poliklinik, presented to the officers a silver wreath containing the names of the founders. This wreath will be kept in the Poliklinik's building at 137 Second Avenue.

Dr. C. A. von Ramdohr presided at the dinner. Speeches were made by Dr. Kohn, Dr. Ludwig Weiss, Dr. Abraham Jacob, Edward Benning, the former president of the Poliklinik, Dr. Sigmund Bristenfeld, Frau Ludwig Weiss, and Frau Steinger. Among the diners were Dr. Henry Schmidt, Dr. F. W. Bunche, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Denhard, Dr. and Mrs. C. Beck, Dr. F. Matthews, Dr. M. J. Schwed, Judge G. F. Roesech and Mr. and Mrs. H. Schomer. Altogether there were seventy-five diners.

The Poliklinik, in its twenty-five years of existence, has treated nearly 1,000,000 persons free of charge. In 1883, the first year of its existence, 2,869 persons were treated at the clinic and 8,700 calls were made. Last year 38,780 cases were treated and 52,688 calls were made. The Poliklinik, which started as a small clinic, was supported at first entirely by the fifteen organizers. In 1891 the institution moved to 78 Seventh Street and two years ago it was housed in its present commodious quarters at 137 Second Avenue, which was formerly the German Dispensary.

SAILOR FATALLY STABBED.

First Tragedy of Fleet's Stay on the Coast—Soldier Wounded Too.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The first serious crime that has occurred since the fleet's arrival took place last night when William Nagle, a bluesucker on the Minnesota, was fatally stabbed and Frederick T. Burns of the Twenty-first Coast Artillery was dangerously wounded by Edward B. Reilly, a cigar dealer.

The three had a number of drinks together and then quarrelled. The soldier and sailor together piled onto Reilly and when he was getting the worst of it he pulled his knife and savagely slashed his two assailants. Then he ran and was picked up by a hackman.

The sailor will die, but the soldier will live. Reilly only suffered scalp wounds.

Newark's Indicted City Counsel Gets a Writ. Chief Justice Gummers at Newark yesterday granted a writ of certiorari to James R. Nugent, City Counsel of Newark, to carry an indictment found against him and others by the last Grand Jury to the Supreme Court for review. The indictment was for conspiracy to procure illegal registration. Mr. Nugent applied for four writs. He has the right to renew application for writs for the other true bills, which were not affected by the one of yesterday. Two of these are for abetting fraudulent registration and the other to procure illegal voting.

Summing Up

We are in the midst of our May sale of Undermuslins and kindred lines, and though this sale was started one week later than similar sales of any of our competitors it is a remarkable, and for

This is again evidence that our foundation was well laid when in 1858 we adopted the motto—GOOD GOODS FOR LESS MONEY THAN ANYWHERE ELSE, BUT NO CREDIT, NO DISCOUNT AND NO COMMISSION.

It has always been our method to BUY FOR CASH, TO SELL FOR CASH, TO GIVE FAIR TREATMENT TO ALL AND PREFERENCE TO NONE AND TO REFUND MONEY IF MERCHANDISE IS RETURNED IN GOOD ORDER.

We usually confine our advertising to a statement of merchandise and values, but in view of the overwhelming success at a time when appeals of others are meeting with little response it may not be amiss to set forth a few facts; and as a peg on which to hang a story let us instance a sale which will take place on Tuesday of 1,200 Women's Silk Jumper Dresses at $2.74 each—exactly the same quality and manufacture that within a week were sold elsewhere at a special value at $1.25.

Our customers will in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred find the same goods on sale here at lower prices than at any other house, and if a competitor in a moment of desperation cuts out prices we invariably cut under as often as necessary to maintain this principle.

The first four months of this year have been generally regarded as months of contraction and economy, and it is when such conditions prevail that the merits of a store like ours are most appreciated. It is, therefore, no surprise to hear it constantly said that Macy's is one of the few stores that is crowded and shows no signs of hard times.

Read carefully what follows:

Silver Birch Furniture

Is Ideal for Summer Homes

FURNITURE that carries with it more than a suggestion of rugged life in the Adirondacks. It is made of birch saplings and the makers have not attempted to "paint the lily." The finish is the natural silvery sheen of the birch—the most beautiful finish it could have, and the most durable, as it will withstand exposure in any climate. You will see here on our Furniture floor a summer house, 25x100-foot size, built entirely of birch saplings. In this house we display the various designs of Silver Birch Furniture.

That it is very inexpensive Furniture is due largely to the fact that we handle the entire output of the Great North Woods factory in which it is made. It is practically a Macy factory, and you buy direct. The designs include pieces for all rooms, porches and lawns. Typical of the cost:

Continuing the Great Sale of

Men's QUALITY Collars, 69c dozen

Standard Brands, Widely Advertised and Sold the Country Over at $1.50 and $3.00 a Dozen

We inaugurated this sale two weeks ago, the purpose of it being to distribute as many as possible of a 50,000-dozen stock of Collars, sacrificed by order of the receiver of two prominent factories in Troy.

We distributed a big slice of this enormous stock, but under difficulties occasioned by the great variety of styles involved. There were Collars of 150 different shapes.

We finally took them off safe and prepared for to-morrow's fresh start, with all of the less desirable styles eliminated and only the score or so of most wanted styles on sale counters, so there will be nothing to hamper selection.

The thousands who patronized the sale earlier know the brands these Collars bear—know that they are standard two-for-a-quarter and quarter dollar brands.

They are being
